

ADVANCING FOOD SAFETY

THROUGH BEHAVIOR CHANGE

January 25-27, 2017
Washington DC
cfsec2017.fightbac.org

Behavior change is at the heart of improved food safety practices at home and work, and that's the focus of the 2017 Consumer Food Safety Education Conference.

The conference brings together people from public and private sectors committed to supporting the good health of consumers. It is a forum to advance the knowledge and practice of health and food safety educators in support of Healthy People 2020 goals.
